

26 September 1950

Mr. John H. Ottemiller
Acting Chief, Division of Library and Reference Services
Room 201, State Annex No. 1
Department of State
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Mr. Ottemiller:

In view of certain inadequacies in our law library, we have found it necessary to use the facilities of other Government law libraries in the past, primarily that of the General Services Administration. However, the GSA law library has been divided into several parts and distributed in such a way that it is no longer practical for us to use it.

The law library in Room 4257 of the New State Building is adequate for our purposes. In addition, it is closer to our office than any other law library in the city. Therefore, those persons listed below and the undersigned are anxious to receive permission to use it:

Walter L. Pforzheimer

STAT

Should the above permission be granted, our use of the library will be sporadic, and for short periods at a time. However, we do require the use of another library, and your cooperation certainly will be appreciated.

Sincerely yours,

STAT

LAWRENCE R. HOUSTON
General Counsel
